The Nevada Department of Education requires that the student attend school regularly in accordance with the laws of the State (NRS 392.122.).

The success of the students’ educational program at CASLV is largely based upon his/her daily presence, which ensures the continuity of instruction and classroom participation. The administration, faculty, and staff of CASLV expect students to be in class, on time, and to be prepared to work.

To encourage a high attendance rate, students that have no absences each semester will earn an attendance award.
