CASLV NEWS

Principal’s Message

CASLV Centennial Hills is one of the few schools in Southern Nevada to offer in-person education. This week we were excited to allow additional grade levels to return to campus for in-person education. We will also welcome back middle school students to in-person education starting February 22. Students who preferred distance learning education will continue online through asynchronous lessons.

Principal,
Mr. Serdar

Quarter 3 Progress Report Cards can be viewed on IC on Tuesday, February 16th

Dear CASLV Centennial Hills Community,

Black History Month is a dedicated time and opportunity to celebrate our past, present, and future. We are responsible for bringing forward the stories and lived experiences of the Black community, including both moments that are celebratory or deeply painful to recall. We would like to honor, learn, and think about Black history. This month, stories and lived experiences of Black Community may be incorporated in the classroom instruction. As a school community, we listen, learn, and find more ways to lead and to celebrate our diversity.
